

NEWS RELEASE

MONTANA DISTRICT OFFICE

Release Date: February 10, 2010

Media Contact: Crystal Baker, 406.441.1089

Release Number: 10-08

Is your Business Secure? Could you be a Victim of Fraud?

Attend the Protect Your Business Workshop to learn how to Protect Your Bottom Line, Identity & Your Customers

Helena, MT – The U.S. Small Business Administration along with the Helena Chamber of Commerce and Better Business Bureau invite you to celebrate National Consumer Protection Week, by attending the Protect Your Business Workshop.

Individuals aren't the only victims of frauds, scams and security breaches, small businesses are particularly vulnerable. Attend this luncheon workshop to learn how you can protect your bottom line, identity and your customers.

Topics include; Computer Security, presented by Brad Smith from the Computer Institute of the Rockies, Identity Theft & Fraud, presented by Coleen Smith with Better Business Bureau, and Free Money, with Rena Carlson from the Small Business Administration.

The workshop will be from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on March 9th at the Chamber of Commerce Conference Room, located at 225 North Cruse Avenue in Helena, Montana. The cost is $10 for chamber members and $15 for non-chamber members, and includes lunch.

Please register by calling Barry Houser at 406.442.4120 or via e-mail at bhouser@helenachamber.com, no later than March 4th.

For more information regarding the workshop, you may contact Crystal Baker, SBA, at 406.441.1089.

###